

COOKIE POLICY

Adopted: October 26,2020

---

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of data sent to your device when you view our website.

How do we use cookies?

We use these small pieces of data to improve your browsing experience while on our website. Our cookies make it faster for information to load as you navigate through our site and they enable the functionality of our website's features.

What information do our cookies collect?

None. Our website is not configured to have cookie implementations that collect any information from our website users. Our cookies are strictly for web page functionality and session controls, not for any process that collects or stores data.

How can you control cookies?

If you like, you can opt-out/disable cookies on your computer by changing the settings in the preferences or options menu of your browser.
